Ten principles of the United Nations Global Compact

MIRAIT ONE Corporation has signed the United Nations Global Compact* (UNGC) and was registered as a participant on May 19, 2025. At the same time, we joined the Global Compact Network Japan, which consists of Japanese and other companies that have signed the UNGC.

We support the Ten Principles relating to “human rights protection”, “the elimination of unfair labor practices”, “environmental stewardship”, and “anti-corruption”, and will continue our efforts toward their realization under the direct commitment of our top management.

【Ten principles of the United Nations Global Compact】

Human Rights	Principle 1	Businesses should support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights; and
	Principle 2	make sure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses.
Labour	Principle 3	Businesses should uphold the freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining;
	Principle 4	the elimination of all forms of forced and compulsory labour;
	Principle 5	the effective abolition of child labour; and
	Principle 6	the elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation.
Environment	Principle 7	Businesses should support a precautionary approach to environmental challenges;
	Principle 8	undertake initiatives to promote greater environmental responsibility; and
	Principle 9	encourage the development and diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies.
Anti-Corruption	Principle 10	Businesses should work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.

It is the world's largest sustainability initiative, in which the United Nations and the private sector (companies and organizations) join hands to build a sound global society. It is a voluntary initiative for each company or organization to act as a good member of society and achieve sustainable growth by exercising responsible and creative leadership.
